Final Motivation

- ▶ Participating in an international tournament has been a lifelong dream of mine, and this competition is the ultimate opportunity to make it a reality. I've dedicated countless hours learning choreographies, trying to understand the scoring systems, participating in local and online competitions, and pushing my limits. Beyond the competition, this event means finally connecting in person with the international just dancers whom I have been following their journey for years. I am ready to bring my absolute best to the stage and prove that I belong among the world's top players.
